A few of our faves:

- The Wash: This mini food hall is full of small business gems like Peruvian Leche de Tigre and Thai SS Gai, voted Nashville Scene's best fried chicken two years running.
- The Blue Room: Listen like a local in one of Nashville's favorite intimate venues. Vinyl enthusiasts will love its direct-to-acetate recording features and record-spinning DJs.
- Tall Tales: We're a bit biased, but Waymore's rooftop bar with craft cocktails and stunning skyline views is hard to beat. It's the perfect ending to a big night out.
